Teign Housing

Fly tipping is illegal

What is fly tipping?

Fly tipping is the illegal dumping of waste onto land or roadsides.

Why is fly tipping illegal?

- It can be hazardous to people & animals
- It can cause damage to the environment
- It looks unsightly and causes a nuisance
- It costs tax payers' money to clean up

What will Teign Housing do about fly tipping?

If we know who is fly tipping then we will issue a notice to the offender giving them 48 hours to remove the items. If the fly tipped rubbish hasn't been removed in that time then we will remove it and charge the culprit. If the problem continues we will take action against their tenancy.

If we do not know who is responsible then we will remove the items ourselves. Unfortunately the cost of this has to be paid for through your service charges.

Last year Teign Housing had over 116 call-outs to remove fly-tipped rubbish. These costs will eventually be reflected in your service charges.

What should you do if you see someone fly tipping?

- Never approach the person as they may become violent
- Never touch the waste as it may be hazardous
- Report it- giving time & date and any other available information

How do I report fly tipping?

If you see fly tipped rubbish or someone fly tipping, please contact Teign Housing on 01626 322722. If we have the time and date and the area is covered by CCTV we can use this to identify the perpetrator.

Household rubbish

You should not put out your household refuse earlier than the day of collection. If you do, this is classed as fly tipping.

Teignbridge District Council can organise collection of clinical waste, bulky household items, fridges and freezers. Discounts are available for people claiming benefits.

Recycling

Teignbridge District Council also operates a kerbside recycling service. Please contact them on 01626 361101 for further details.

Recycling Centres

There are recycling centres in Newton Abbot, Buckfastleigh and Dawlish where items can be taken free of charge. Call Devon County Council Waste Management on 0845 155 1010 for more details.
